A+ Federal Credit Union Selects Branch Site in Kyle

Plum Creek Location in High-growth North Hays County Will Serve Hays I.S.D. Educators and Kyle Communities

AUSTIN, Texas – Jan. 27, 2009 – Today, A+ Federal Credit Union announced plans for a new branch location to serve Kyle and North Hays County. The new branch will be located in Kyle's Plum Creek Uptown District, which is located along Kohler's Crossing, one-quarter of a mile west of Kyle Parkway (FM 1626). Opening during or after 2010, the 3,800 square foot A+ Federal Credit Union location will be in close proximity to the Hays Consolidated Independent School District offices, Performing Arts Center and schools. Eric DeJernett of CB Richard Ellis represented A+ Federal Credit Union.

"The location and plans for Plum Creek's mixed-use Uptown District were major considerations in the selection of this site," said Kerry A.S. Parker of A+ Federal Credit Union. "We look forward to serving the Kyle community."

The A+ Federal Credit Union will be part of Plum Creek's Uptown District, a development that will integrate retail, mixed-use and office space into a walkable, pedestrian-friendly town center. Uptown District is the realization of the Plum Creek development team's long-term goal of adding a mixed-use component to the Plum Creek neighborhood, which was established in 1997.

Retail and commercial development in Kyle continues to grow in the area along Kyle Parkway, which is the main connector to Plum Creek west of Interstate Highway 35. New construction near the intersection of Kyle Parkway and I-35 includes a City Lights Movie Theater, HEB Plus!, Kyle Marketplace, retailer Kohl's, Seton Medical Center Hays and a Target department store.
